

Tesco Awards CoGri Asia Contract For 56,000 M² DC Floor Construction In China.

CoGri Asia, based in Singapore, has been awarded a contract for the construction of a 56,000 m² Steel Fibre only Reinforced Slab on Piles (SOP) floor for Tesco at Jiashan, near Shanghai, China.

Construction of the Pile Supported Slab, will commence in June 2010 and is to be completed within a 71-day period. Pioneered by CoGri Asia, this is the first time a floor of this design will be constructed in China.

The award follows other Steel Fibre SOP floors recently constructed by CoGri Asia for Tesco including a 24,000 m² floor in Thailand in 2008 and a 50,000 m² in Malaysia in 2009. This third award to us clearly sets aside CoGri Asia as the leading Quality Concrete Flooring Contractor operating in Asia.

Having such a major global brand like Tesco being our repeated clients reaffirms CoGri Asia's position as the leading provider of high quality concrete flooring solutions and construction services.

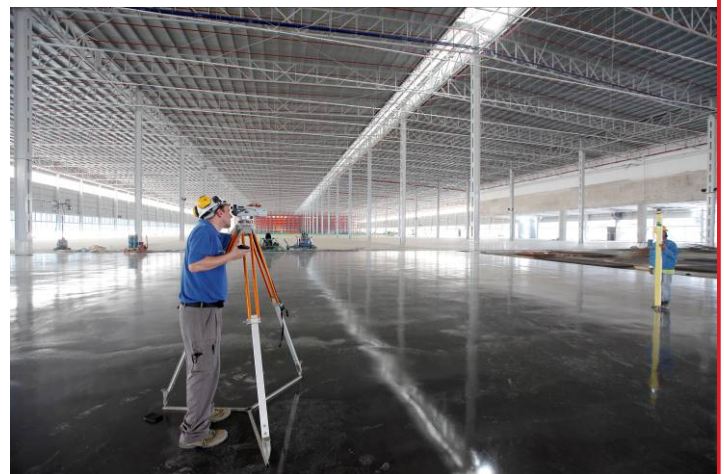

CoGri Asia are part of the CoGri Group of companies.
